

Nunkuwarrin Yunti

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We would like to acknowledge that we are meeting on the traditional lands of the Kurna people, we pay our respect to Elders past, present and emerging.

We recognize and respect their cultural heritage, beliefs, and relationship with their land.

We also extend that respect to other First Nations individuals in the audience today.

Who we are?

Patricia-Lee Cotton

Māori / Kamilaroi women Indigenous to both Australia & New Zealand

She/ Her

Project Officer, Tobacco

Patricia has a background in Sales, marketing, and promotion, she spent several years doing this line of work though different Photography studios. Patricia has qualification in both the hospitality and the Beauty industry. With her diversity of skills this makes for a good conversation.

After experiencing the Tackling Tobacco Program's as a community member, Patricia has the passion to change what the future looks like within Indigenous smoking, she hopes to see some real change in this area.

"Knowledge is the key. I hope to teach as many people as I can about my knowledge in Tackling Indigenous Smoking"

Patricia Cotton

Adam Jenkins

Ngarrindjer / Kaurna

Social Media and Marketing Creator, Tobacco

Adam is a highly skilled filmmaker and graphic designer who learned his craft at various film-making courses and on the job training. Adam applied these skills as Tandanya's Marketing & Media Officer where he coordinated the Social media accounts and event photographer and videography.

Those skills have now been applied to Nunkuwarrin Yunti's Tackling Tobacco Team where he posts regularly to their social media account.

"Social Media is about connecting with your audience and therefore I aim to create a strong visual presence to not only educate but to inspire"

Adam Jenkins

Clinton Bennell

Noongar and Wiradjuri

He/Him

Team Manager, Population Health

Clinton has a background in AOD, Case management and Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Primary Health.

In the last two years, Clinton has focused on Tobacco cessation working as the Quitline Enhancement Officer, Quitskills Educator and now currently working as the Nunkuwarrin Yunti Team Manager for Health Promotion.

“Smoking is the largest preventable cause of death within our communities. As we continue to reduce smoking rates and achieve smoke-free communities, we will see more positive health outcomes for our people as they go on to live longer, healthier lives.”

Clinton Bennell

NUNKUWARRIN YUNTI SUCCESS STORY

---

Aboriginal Spirit Colour Fun Run

The Activity

- Colour fun Run
- Civic Park Modbury 15th November 2021
- Who was involved? Nunkuwarrin Yunti, Nunga Active, ANFPP, Dental SA, Watto Purrunna (Vaccination Van)
- Online registration/promotion through FB, Instagram

We targeted all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander community members.

We were able to have Adults, Young people, New mums and babies

Evaluation

- Attendance
- Age
- Percentage of Aboriginal and/or Torres Strait Islander People
- Smoking and or Vaping Status
- Homes and Cars smoke free status
- Knowledge and concerns of passive smoking

This data was captured on the day by our staff on the day and incentive to complete the survey was each person would receive a raffle ticket and would go into the draw to win Tackling Tobacco Merchandise and prizes.

Impact and Summary

- COVID Event
- Wiltja Boarding School
- Continuity of Education

